Tomorrow---Last Day for Choosing Your Easter Hat

We've reserved some of our prettiest creations for Saturday, and with amply reinforced assortments and an enlarged sales force, we are ready for the biggest millinery business of our entire career tomorrow.

All this week we've been demonstrating the superiority of our Trimmed Hats at $5, $8, $10, $12, and $15. That they are the equal of hats costing much higher prices elsewhere is a matter of fact agreed upon by all who take the trouble to make comparisons. But they are something more. There's a smartness and charm about them that's simply inimitable. Our artists have successfully caught the ideas of fashion and reproduced them in a thousand variations—each one following closely the lines laid down by the present vogue.

500 Beautiful Trimmed Hats Ready for Tomorrow's Demand.

No need to bother your head about the details of trimming your Easter hat. Come tomorrow and make your selection from the hundreds we've assembled for Saturday's big demand. You cannot fail to find something to your liking—in fact, choosing from such an assortment, with the privilege of trying on dozens of hats and finding the hat most becoming to your face is bound to result in absolute satisfaction. All we ask is that you come early as possible—so that in case any slight change is required, we may make it at once and send your Easter hat home in ample time.
